

PROFESSIONAL MASTER'S DEGREE MDSI DIGITAL MANAGEMENT & INFORMATION SYSTEMS

Level professional master's degree	Prerequisite Baccalaureate + 3	Credits 120 ECTS	Duration 4 semesters	Study mode Basic training/ Full time
--	--	----------------------------	--------------------------------	--

The objective of Digital Management & Information Systems is to train specialists in the support of the digital transformation of companies on all aspects of technology, organisational, human, legal, etc.

This Master is also offered the executive master degree in partnership with the company Vermeq which is a software publisher and an integrator of solutions for business and digital transformations in the insurance and finance sector.

- MANAGEMENT
Business Process Management, Change Management, Intercultural Management...
- DIGITAL
e-business, Web-Marketing, ERP, CRM & BI...
- SOFT SKILLS
Seminars, Personal development, Business games, Languages...
- PROFESSIONAL PROJECT
Internships, Final project, Cross- disciplinary projects, Company visits...

Skills

- Lead and develop business diagnostics for the integration of ICT into business lines and processes.
- Know how to manage changes related to digital transformation.
- Identify appropriate strategic choices for the management and optimization of the enterprise information systems.

Jobs

Digital Project Manager

Digital Account Executive, IT Project Manager, Product & Service Manager, Digital Asset Manager, Product Manager...

Head of Digital Transformation

Chief digital officer, Digital Strategy Manager...

Information System Consultant,

ERP Consultant, IT Consultant, CRM Consultant...

Activity Area

Digital Services Companies
Consultancy firms
Banking & Insurance
Construction industry
Transport
Information & Communication Technologies